The attention of all creditors or shareholders is drawn to section 321 of the Companies Act 1993 which provides that where public notice is given of an intention to remove a company from the register any person may send or deliver to the Registrar, not later than the date specified in the notice, an objection to the removal on any one or more of the following grounds:

- (a) That the company is still carrying on business or there is other reason for it to continue in existence; or
